

WAGING PEACE in HAMILTON

Presented by
Unitarian Universalist UNO at First Unitarian Hamilton

Monday September 25th 7:30 p.m.
170 Dundurn St S., Hamilton
Open to All – Free Admission
Light refreshments are served

Gary and Joy Warner, long time community leaders and peace advocates in Hamilton will present Waging Peace in Hamilton; a review of Hamilton's leadership in the Peace Movement in Canada. Some of the topics will be the 25th Anniversary of the Gandhi Peace Festival, the role of Peace Studies at McMaster, Voices of Women for Peace, Culture of Peace Hamilton and the work to make Hamilton a Nuclear Free Zone.

Q and A to follow

We welcome students who wish to know more about the community in which McMaster is situated and who want to find ways to become more engaged in local social justice initiatives.

Free Parking

5 minutes walk from Main Street Bus

This program is part of the Gandhi Peace Festival &
the United Nations in Canada Hamilton Branch Fall Season of Activities